REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2007-2008 school year brought many awards and recognition to Brookland-Cayce that certainly would make any alumni proud. In the fall of 2007, Brookland-Cayce was recognized as a second-term Exemplary Award Winning School. BCHS was the only high school in South Carolina to win the award in consecutive terms.

The Graduating Senior Class of 2008 earned scholarship monies totaling over $3,900,000. Eleven graduating Bearcats were recognized as Palmetto Fellows Scholarship Winners. Five seniors were also recognized as South Carolina Academic Achievement Honors Award winners. The BCHS Educational Foundation also awarded over $15,500 in student scholarships and over $14,500 in teacher grants during the 2007-2008 school year.

Our Fine Arts Department had the distinction of receiving Superior Ratings in their State Festivals for Chorus, Band, and Strings for the fifth consecutive year. The band had students qualify for Region and All-State Band programs. The chorus and strings programs had students who received both state and national recognition, because students were selected for various awards.

Our Army JROTC unit was designated as an Honor Unit with Distinction for the 12th consecutive year. Our career and technology educational program produced many state award winners and participants in national competitions. Our award winning literary magazine, The Laureate, once again received a superior rating from the National Council of Teachers of English, as well as All-Southern designation.

Our Athletics gained regional and state recognition in a number of areas. In addition to winning the State AAA Championship in Baseball, we played for the lower-state championships in Boys' Basketball, Boys' Soccer, Girls' Volleyball, and Girls' soccer. We garnered region championships in Boys' Basketball and Baseball. We had 10 teams participate in the state playoffs and were recognized as one of the leading athletic programs in the area as a result of our overall teams' performances.

This was a special year in the 76-year history of Brookland-Cayce. Our high school has always had a special place in the heart of our community, and the accomplishments of this past school year will only enhance the reputation of Brookland-Cayce High School in this area and across the state.
